Welcome Messages

Greetings!

Warm greetings for winter,
With joy the Centre offers a table laden with nourishing spiritual food to feed, tend, and perhaps even revive your soul. During this dark and chilly season you are invited to the warmth of God's compassionate embrace as we turn into 2026, enter into the light of Epiphany, and pilgrimage into the Lenten season. May you partake of these contemplative & community offerings so generously offered by the various locations of the Centre, be filled, rested, and deepen into the bountiful love, kindness, and freedom of God-with-us.

Peace & Presence,

Lorie Martin

The Centre for Spiritual Renewal

Hello!

The speed of which Autumn has passed us by is truly astounding. In all of its comfy glory, we now brace ourselves for the crisp winter air, the frost on the grass, the sharp air in our lungs. It's all just so refreshing. New Year, New us.

We hope within the humble little pages of this booklet you'll find answers, questions, and wisdom about the journey the Centre has been on and where we have landed too.

Join us on our perpetual journey, and as a wise adventurer once said:

Roads go ever ever on
Under cloud and under star,
Yet feet that wandering have gone
Turn at last to home afar.

Warmest Regards,

James Xavier Lam

Understanding Spiritual Trauma and the Process of Healing Holy Hurt

Mondays: January 19 – March 23 2026

10:00 am - 11:30 am

ONLINE LINK TO COME

Facilitated by Spiritual Directors Kellie Brown & Gillian Drader

We as humans are designed for connection with others, but what happens when the communities we are involved with become a source of pain? Spiritual Trauma is a reality many of us have experienced throughout our lives. Yet healing from our pain also invites us to reimagine what safe, and healthy community could be. Join us as we thoughtfully and gently process the material from Hilary McBride's book, Holy Hurt. "These new and healing group experiences happen by paying attention not only to the ideas that we share but also to the way we relate, listen, and invite authenticity". (from Brave Book Conversations group guide by Hilary McBride)

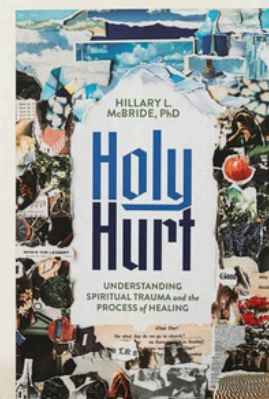

Each session will begin with a centering exercise, short overview of a key theme from Holy Hurt and time to process together in community.

All other details and a comprehensive FAQ can be found at the registration link below. Please note, this is not a registered therapy group. The aim is to facilitate safe community that can nurture both individual and collective healing and growth

Sung Worship EVENSONG

Sunday evenings

January 25th

Saturday, February 21st (with the Christ Church Cathedral, Vancouver choir)

March 15th, April 26th, May 24th, June 14th

7:00 - 8:00 pm

With The Rev'd Fr. Matt Koovisk, Officiant
and Zach Power, Choir Director

This monthly sung service of Evening Prayer, based on the order found in the Canadian Book of Common Prayer (1962), Evensong is a peaceful and meditative church service in the Anglican tradition. It is rooted in the monastic tradition and invites worshippers to reflect and find spiritual stillness through the beauty of words and choral music.

Fr. Matt Koovisk is currently the Rector of St. John's, Sardis. Growing up as a boy chorister at Christ Church Cathedral in Fredericton, New Brunswick, he was introduced to Evensong at an early age, and his love of Evensong (and choral music in general) has stuck with him ever since. Since those formative years, he's participated in all sorts of church music, most notably as the pianist to Devotion in Motion, a youth choir of St. Michael's Cathedral in Kelowna and St. Mary's Church, Richmond. Matt is currently a member of the tenor section of Belle Voci, a chamber choir in the Fraser Valley.

Zach Power has been singing in choral evensong services since 2015. He studied the traditions at Christ Church Cathedral in Victoria and is keen to bring that aspect of Anglican tradition to light in Chilliwack. Zach has extensive singing and directing experience as an alumnus of the Canadian National Youth Choir and as a past director of the Northern Lights Chamber Choir (Salmon Arm), Shuswap Youth Choir, and Victoria Arion Male Choir.

February 7, 2026

10:00 am - 12:00 pm

In-Person @ St. Dunstan's, Aldergrove

Facilitated by Rev. Helen Tervo & Rev. Clarence Li

So many of us go through life experiencing pain that limits and interferes with life as we imagine it should be. Coping with chronic pain can be exhausting and isolating. We continue our conversation and support in the many faces of pain – physical, mental, emotional, and of course, spiritual. We will also continue to talk about how we sustain relationships in the presence and limitations of pain.

You don't need to have attended the earlier session, come as you are right now.

Rev'd Helen Tervo is retired from active Anglican ministry but knows that the spirit continues to call. She has been living with severe arthritic pain for over 5 years.

Humour has been God's gift to her.

A contemplative approach to our changing climate

Lectio Terra

Saturday February 28th

9:00am – 4:00pm

St. Anselm's, Vancouver

Facilitated by: Dr. Jason Browne, Rev. Alecia and Rev. Areeta

Contemplative spirituality embraces a process of sacred reading called Lectio Divina. This “sacred reading” is a way of sitting with scripture or other sacred texts as an anchor for communion with the Divine. Its dimensions entail: Lectio, Meditatio, Oratio, Contemplatio... Reading, meditation, prayer, contemplation. We begin with the words, we move into pondering the text, we grasp words and phrases as seeds of prayer, we watch for longings and prayers that bubble to the surface. And then, we sink into to cool stream of silence that immerses us in the Divine. Silence. Beyond words, but not without them.

A Live Seminar with Cynthia Bourgeault

Thomas Keating and Full Contemplative Engagement

Saturday, February 28th 2026

10:00am - 12:00pm

Online - Zoom

Registration to come

This online live seminar recaps Cynthia Bourgeault's recent work on the evolution of Thomas Keating as a modern-day mystic, and explores how his prophetic last words challenge us as contemplatives to step outside our comfort zones into full engagement with the world. Cynthia will explore the implications of Keating's directive to meet the world guided by the truth of silence and science, and filled with creativity and compassion.

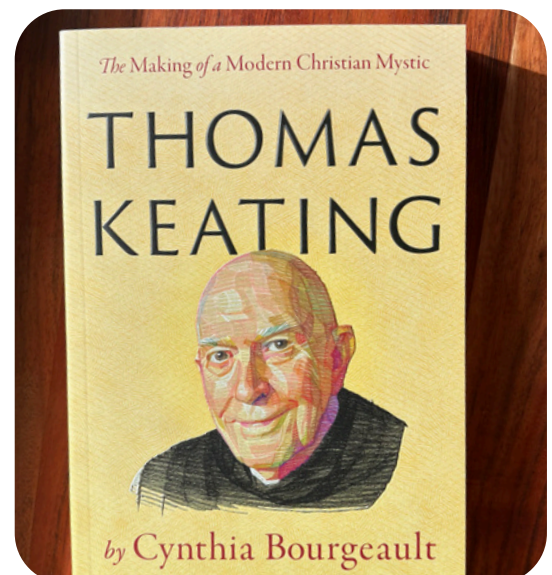

She will consider the invitation to step outside of religious and political boundaries; and what it might mean that we choose to leave ourselves open to the "inspiration from the heart of God." We will build on the evolution of Thomas Keating's thought, and take a further step into the application of his "last words" to the world in which we live. Cynthia will address the necessary and painful kinds of maturation which the contemplative community needs to undergo in order to hold a collective Wisdom presence for the fracturing world in which we live.

We invite you to attend this event together with others in your contemplative community. TCS will be providing a series of reflection questions for small groups to ponder "in real life" after the Zoom presentation.

Cynthia Bourgeault

The Rev. Dr. Cynthia Bourgeault is a modern-day mystic, Episcopal priest, writer, and internationally known retreat leader. She divides her time between solitude at her seaside hermitage in Maine and tending to a global network of students and practitioners.

Lenten Book Study Read the Bible like a Mystic

6 Sessions on Sunday: February 22, March 1, 8, 15, 22, 29

12 – 1 pm

St. Dunstons, Aldergrove

Group study on Carl McColman's Read the Bible like a Mystic: Contemplative Wisdom and the Word (2025).

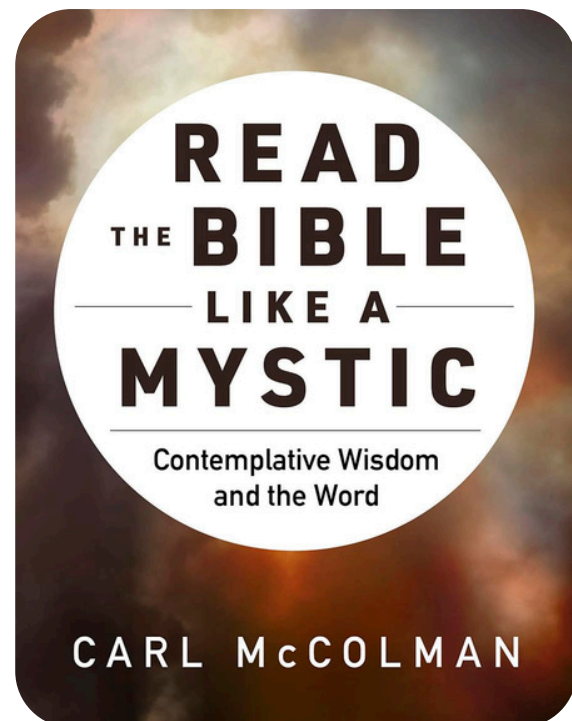

The study will open new horizons of understanding leading to deeper belief. It will also give us language which will empower us to talk to our family and friends about why we have faith and how they can have faith that will assist them through difficult times. The study will give tools that will help eliminate the misuse of the scriptures as a divisive weapon instead of being a book about love.

This six-part Lenten study is open to all, whether you have faith or not. It is for those who are reading the Bible for the first time or seasoned study readers. It's a place for learning and for building community in understanding and love.

My life's work is grounded in Relationship — the sacred interconnectedness of all things, held together in Divine love. I am passionate about deeply listening and paying close attention to the spaces between: the quiet movement of the Divine in relationships with others, with the trees, the animals, and the waters that sustain life. Whether connection arises with another person or through the intuitive language of nature — what philosopher Martin Buber calls "below language" — I believe all relationships offer us a sacred place to encounter the Divine.

The Centre at St. Andrew grew from the first Centre at the Parish of St. Dunstan's. Our aim is to support people on their spiritual journeys using both the riches of the Christian spiritual tradition and new spiritual practices. The Centre invites all people to come together for intentional time with God to gain insight, growth, and healing, in community and for the world.

The Centre began at St. Dunstan's in 2018 when Rev. David Taylor and Rev. Lorie Martin joined dreams, experience, and energy to develop the Centre for Spiritual Renewal. They gathered the already existing spiritual formation programs in the church and added a beautiful grass-path labyrinth, weekly contemplative practices, occasional workshops, studies, and community retreats. The life of the Centre flourished as many were drawn to this type of spiritual experience.

We envision a Cathedral which is radically inclusive, restlessly inquisitive, intentional, and inspired. This is a place that is called to lead and to serve, in communion and in community, with healing, reconciliation, and love, living out Christian mission. Together, we look to the power of Christ for the transformation of each person, this city, and the world.

All Saints in Mission BC is pleased to be part of the Centre for Spiritual Renewal. Partnerships between Parishes is an important ministry in our fragmented world. We are proud to be able to add our ministries to the ongoing ministry of Spiritual Renewal. Beyond Sunday Morning Worship All Saints has developed ministries of Healing Prayer, Lectio Divina, Labyrinth Prayer Walking, Mid-week Eucharist, Bible Study, and occasional Workshops. It is an eclectic group of ministries designed to engage a wide range of spiritual preferences and practices. Through our partnerships we can all participate in the ongoing Spiritual Renewal of the Church.

St Paul's Anglican Parish is in the midst of launching a brand new partner Centre. This urban Centre is called, "The Centre for Spiritual Re-Imagination." In the heart of Vancouver's West End, St. Paul's offers unique programs and resources to promote spiritual renewal within Vancouver's diverse urban culture. The Online Morning Prayer each day began in the Covid19 Pandemic and has grown to be a favorite practice for many from far and near. Watch for the unfolding of our new program!

Nurturing a deepening awareness of God

The CENTRE FOR SPIRITUAL RENEWAL extends a warm invitation to gather in person or online for life-giving opportunities to connect and deepen in relationship with God, oneself, and others.

The Centre offers retreats, study, prayer, and practice groups, workshops, conferences, and spiritual direction.

The Centre is about supporting people on their spiritual journey using a variety of spiritual traditions to experience God's love, wisdom, and healing; that we may be a loving engaged presence in community and for the world.

What is The Centre for Spiritual Renewal?

The Centre for Spiritual Renewal is a Christian Formation coalition that began in 2018 at the Anglican Parish of St. Dunstan, Aldergrove, and has now expanded to include St Andrew's Langley, St. Thomas, Chilliwack, St. Paul's, Vancouver, and All Saints, Mission.

The Centre's development was assisted by the Diocese of New Westminster (DONW) Parish Development School and continues to be supported by Parish Development grants as its scope expands. In 2022, the Centre focus broadened to include spiritual formation gatherings for children, youth and families. The Diocese further encouraged the Centre ministry in 2025 by supporting an Inter-parish Co-ordinator and a Communications facilitator to assist parishes in the DONW who want to establish a Centre with their congregation. This initiative is to offer clergy and congregations resources and support to grow this ministry without it being a burden. Each parish has its own distinct Centre and can be connected to the Inter-parish ministry and program.

What does The Centre do?

At the Centre, we have a strong desire to grow in God's grace, to be a place where people come to encounter God's loving presence, and to experience an authentic faith community. We invite all to gather, learn, pray, and practice in ways that are meaningful to each person.

Integration & Transformation

How does The Centre work?

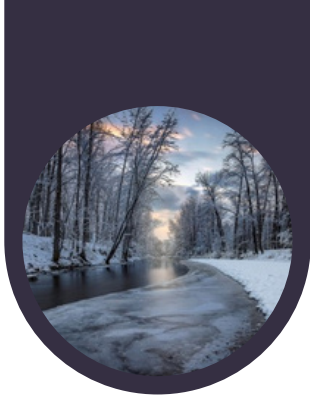

Parishes offer weekly, monthly, and occasional events that are either 'Drop-in' or require registration with a suggested fee. Scholarships are provided so all may come. A warm invitation is given to all.

Who is involved in The Centre?

Trained leaders and specialized facilitators from a variety of walks of life offer a broad spectrum of spiritual practices, studies, and workshops. We highly value local leadership and at times the Centre hosts an event with a high-profile facilitator to encourage our learning and practice. The Centre has a group of advisors who meet regularly to listen together and share from their experience, skill-sets, and wisdom. This has proven to be a very valuable encouragement to the directors of the Centre. The Advisor Team is: Archbishop John Stephens, Rev. Tellison Glover, Rev. Jessica Schapp, Rev. David Taylor, Rev. Dixie Black, Rev. Anne Crosthwait, and the parish priests: Rev. Andrew Halladay, Rev. Paul Bowie, Rev. Clarence Li, and Rev. Lorie Martin.

'Integration & Transformation' are two key words that mark the life and flow of the Centre. Participants are experiencing spiritual vibrancy and a sustaining connection to God which affects all areas of life, faith and family. We have noticed that those who join Centre gatherings from outside the church are drawn in and some return to parish life. Those within a parish are curious, inspired, and drawn to return to practices from their Anglican roots. There is a weaving together of lives integrating into the parish's community life, spiritual growth and renewal to love and serve the world.

The Intention of the Centre team and gatherings is reflected in the focus to invite participants to compassionately listen to Spirit, self, and others; to engage in an open and authentic manner, and to rest in the transforming "Presence & Action" of God.

Spiritual Direction

Spiritual direction or spiritual companionship is an ongoing relationship in which a person desirous of being attentive to their spiritual journey regularly meets with a spiritual director/companion (usually once a month) for the purpose of becoming more attuned to the presence of God's spirit in all of life. It is a listening time to explore what matters to us: our joys, struggles, hurts, hopes, fears, and dreams. It is a time to consider our relationship with God, ourselves, and others and discover and drink from the Living Water of the Indwelling Spirit.

The inter-parish team of spiritual companions are available for occasional or ongoing one-on-one sessions to accompany you as you grow in grace. The Centre has a Peer Supervision Group for directors wanting support, learning, and connection.
